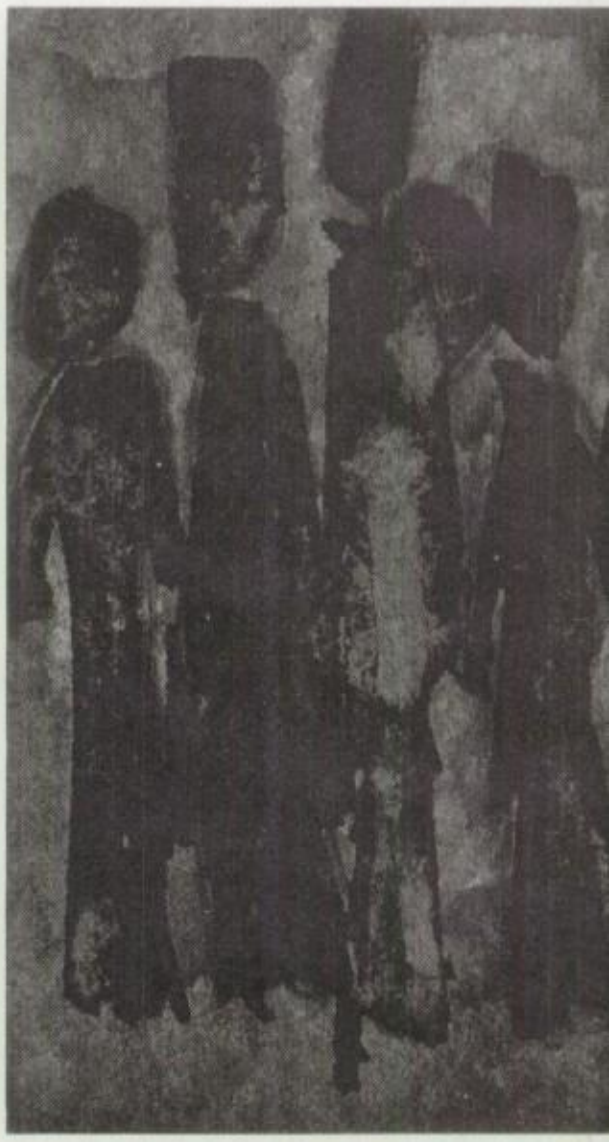
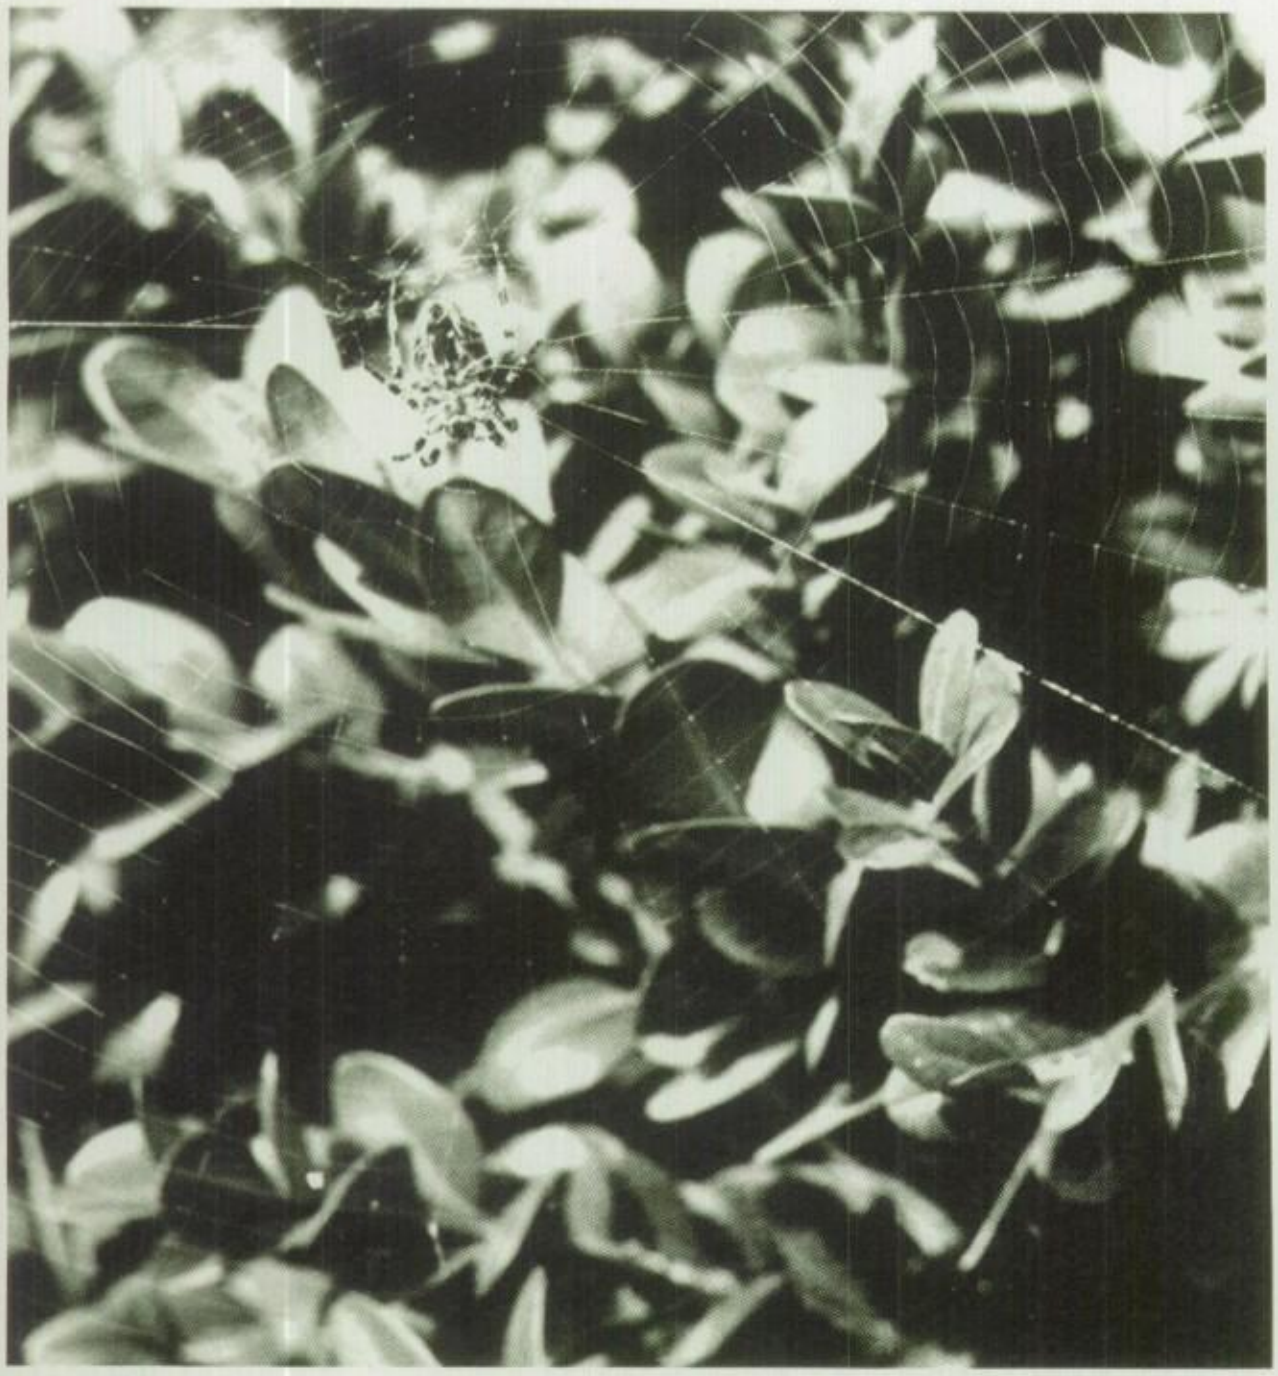
A multitude of bodies of all shapes, colors, and forms swarm the halls. Undistinguishable now, their abstract forms become concrete as each is nurtured by the next. Each mind, molded by the impressions its master makes, is the witness to ideas and events which will play weighty roles in his precious life. Abstract figures, clinging to memories of the past for fear of what lies behind the doors to the inscrutable future, emerge as definite beings of tomorrow.





Torn between conforming with society and struggling alone as an individual, he adjures for understanding in a world of turmoil. Garfield High School, a unique place where two boys, one black "Who Am I?" The question seems to harass today's youth as he strives to find his identity in a chaotic, changing world of automation, civil rights, and social pressures. Clinging to the past, anticipating the future, he weaves his web of security and waits for the haunting question to prey.

and one white, share in the joy of existence, builds within today's youth an awareness of the fragility of human life so that he may strive for a world without suspicion or hate.

the Class of 1969

Fertis Taylor
President

Donald Ward
Vice-President

Karen Young
Secretary

The class of sixty-nine joined in the spirit of Garfield with mixed emotions of excitement and anxiety as they stumbled into the world of pep assemblies, homework and tests, and the purple and white of our alma mater. During the year the class grew in character as it became more aware of itself as one instead of many.

The class of 1968 was befittingly nicknamed the "Class with Soul" as is it promoted the spirit of Garfield with its pennant sale and junior prom. The Juniors accepted the challenge that the year presented and anticipated their senior year and its conquest.

Mr. Hanawalt
PRINCIPAL

In these confused times, the question of what constitutes maturity is raised again and again as young people express their concern and frustrations with the authority and standards of the adult generation. Does graduation from high school certify that the student has become an adult or has achieved maturity?

We cannot answer for all, but we can say these two things — that being an adult means, at least in part, accepting the responsibilities for the consequences of your actions; and that being mature is a continuous process that you carry on to the end of your life.

We know you well as individuals and as a group, and we are confident that you of the Class of 1967 have made your high school careers an important step in the quest for adulthood and maturity.

Frank S. Hanawalt, Principal

Mr. Lindh
VICE-PRINCIPAL

"Time and tide waits for no man" — This truely expresses the chain of events as they occur in school life. As the present slips so quickly into the past, it is my hope that the growth and maturity developed during your years at Garfield will share an important part in your future hopes and ambitions.

The members of Bulldog Club unselfishly gave their time and effort to help the school at the games and other functions. And more important, they found friendship and self-respect in their road toward manhood.

G.I.R.C.

Group Inter-Relations Council (GIRC): Adviser: Mrs. Larson. Steering Committee: Martha Owens, Jon Bridge, Sally Sumida. Not Pictured: Joe Jones, Charlotte Kiga, Rick Russell.

GIRC was established this year to strengthen relations between Garfield and other Seattle high schools.

The one-day exchanges with Mercer Island, Ballard, Cascade, and Bellevue gave students an opportunity to make binding friendships and gain new insights into solutions to problems which are common to all schools.

School Exchanges

Garfield Exchange Students: Joe Jones, Marti Jones, Sara Ervin. Not Pictured: Larry Taylor, Diane Wong.

Shoreline Exchange Students: Eric Diffner, Chara Parry, Bill English, Mike Hurley.

IN.RE.CO.

InReCo, the International Relations Committee, made a tremendous effort to raise money to send a Garfield student to Braunschweig, Germany on the traditional exchange next year. Students worked assiduously during the year selling stocks, fruit cakes, and candy to make a dream become reality for Patsy Sullivan who was selected to represent Garfield as a student ambassador to Germany.

The climax of the InReCo year was InReCo Day. Foreign exchange students from all Seattle schools came to Garfield where the promotion of better relations and understanding between different nationalities is best exemplified.

International Relations Committee (InReCo): Advisers: Mrs. Joh son, Mrs. Santisteban. Officers: President, Jane Hamada; Vice-Pre dent, Jane Mead; Secretary, Paul Spickard; Treasurer, Lyn Johns.

InReCo members sold stock to finance the exchange to Braunschweig, Germany.

Patsy Sullivan, a sophomore, was selected to represent Garfield as our exchange student to Braunchweig, Germany.

Honor Society

The Honor Society of Garfield High School, a highly respected organization, opened its doors to all students having achieved high academic standards. Inspired by the Honor Society Assembly, the students had a busy year with various activities, including the sale of hockey tickets, pins, and the tutoring of students. The year was climaxed by the annual banquet.

In Memorium

Death, be not proud, though some have called thee
Mighty and dreadful, for thou art not so:
For those whom thou think'st thou dost overthrow Die not, poor Death; nor yet canst thou kill me.
From Rest and Sleep, which but thy picture be,
Much pleasure, then from thee much
more must flow;
And soonest our best men with thee
do go—
Rest of their bones and souls' delivery!
Thou'rt slave to fate, chance, kings,
and desperate men,
And dost with poison, war, and sickness dwell;
And poppy or charms can make us
sleep as well
And better than thy stroke. Why swell'st thou then?
One short sleep past, we wake eternally,
And Death shall be no more: Death,
thou shalt die!
